

16 for 2016

CSAS Staff restaurant picks

Southern Star - "Southern recipes that I love. Their fresh salads are always delicious. The desserts are large and tasty, and their vegetables are phenomenal! "

Rembrandt's - "A favorite for pastries, bagels, sandwiches and wonderful coffee! You can sit out on the patio. Rembrandt's, when you crave that buttery French pastry or dessert. A short walk up from the shuttle stop and in walking distance of the school. Open weekdays at 7 a.m."

Flying Squirrel - "The place for tapas, innovative cocktails, and award-winning architecture. I love the duck tacos and garlic house-cut fries!"

Tony's - "In the art district, yummy, Italian-inspired dishes, made in house."

Public House - "Seasonal menu of contemporary cuisine at reasonable prices. Especially known for their fried chicken. Attentive service, attractive, comfortable setting, and just a few blocks from the Read House."

Urban Stack - "Awesome burgers with great toppings in a historic building with a relaxed atmosphere and reasonable prices. Great drinks!"

Terminal - "Local beer, historic flatiron building, upstairs deck, great atmosphere, excellent service, roast beef nachos are the best appetizer ever!"

The Boathouse - "Located right on the river and river park, it's scenic and very easy to get to. Great wood-fire grilled shrimp, oysters, calamari with feta, brisket, and olive oil fries."

Taco Mamacita's - "Modern Mexican, great vibe."

Maple St. Biscuit Company - "Awesome breakfast, with lots of options and wonderful food for hearty appetites".

Champy's - "Fried chicken to die for, along with tamales, fried green tomatoes, and a huge selection of beers in a lively setting."

Clyde's on Main - " Laid-back and casual. They have a live band on Saturday evenings. Clyde's is great for dinner, drinks and fun!"

Sticky Fingers - "For a taste of Tennessee, try the dry-rub ribs, smoked chicken, or barbeque sandwiches. Great variety of sauces, including Jack Daniels."

La Alteña - "A lively family-owned Mexican restaurant. Great prices, large servings, and wonderful pico and guacamole."

Alleia - "Wood-fired, artisanal pizzas, great bar or outdoor seating."

St John's - "Divine, for a special occasion when price is no object. One of the Southeast's premier restaurants, it is elegant and welcoming. The seasonally inspired menu is from locally sourced ingredients. It is on the shuttle line."

Bon appétit!

D. Tucker and J. Raulston

Thank you to the following CSAS staff members who contributed their time, dining memories, and signed their names, for the above suggestions:

Chris Hendrix

Emily Krause

Brittney Hamilton

Anita Varava

AnnMarie Fitzsimmons

Meghan McDougall

Kelly Coffelt

Sharon Smith

Autum McAmish

Judi Jasinski

Theresa Harrison

Joy Nease

Michelle Howell

Tracey Daverson

Jennifer Bissonnette

DeDe Cochran

Kawanna Potier